Boo!

That's what 4-month-old Cynthia Grace Lewis, right, seems to be saying to the photographer. She is the daughter of Shirrel Wayne and Angie Lewis of West Liberty. She was among the huge crowd of Halloween revelers, young and old, that thronged to Old Mill Park Saturday evening to participate in what has become one of the county's most popular seasonal events. Sponsored by the West Liberty Tourism Commission, the event included games, contests, costumes, and Trick or Treating. The sponsors served 1,000 free hotdogs, prepared by the West Liberty Volunteer Fire Department, and nearly as many fruit drinks.

Christmas Fest being revived

After a hiatus of a couple of years, the West Liberty-Morgan County Old Fashion Community Christmas Festival will be revived this year on Friday and Saturday, Dec. 4 and 5.

Several activities are already planned, including open house by merchants, a Christmas bazaar, photos with Santa, a Christmas auction, teen dance, a concert by the Appalachian Troubadours, sleigh rides, and a chili supper.

A Christmas Parade also is planned.

A complete schedule of events is being prepared for publication. If your organization is planning an activity on these dates or during the holiday season and you would like to have it listed on the schedule of events, contact the Mayor's Office/Tourism at 743-3330, Morgan County Government/Recreation Commission at 743-3897, or the West Liberty Kiwanis Club at 743-4415.

Public input sought for new water line

Any resident of Morgan County residing outside the city limits of West Liberty who would like for their road to be considered for a future water line project is asked to contact the Morgan County Water District.

The district board will be considering new roads for inclusion in the Phase 14 Water Line Extension Project.

The water district office is open 8:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Memorial to be dedicated at Veterans Day pgm. Saturday

Retired Maj. Gen. Verna Fairchild to be guest speaker

Morgan County Woman's Club

The 28th Annual Veterans Day Program will be held this Saturday, Nov. 7, in the Tredway/Kiwanis Park in West Liberty. The program, which will begin at 11:00 a.m. and will continue for about one hour and forty-minutes, will include a special dedication ceremony to mark the unveiling of the park's new Women in Military Monument. All veterans, their families, and the public are extended a cordial invitation to attend.

The GFWC Kentucky Morgan County Woman's Club embarked on its project to honor women in the military in the fall of 2007 and voted to make it an official endeavor in January 2008. On March 31, 2009, during Women's History Month, the ground breaking ceremony took place at the park and the project was well on its way to becoming a reality.

Many hours of work, planning, and major decision making have taken place over the course of the past several months. A project of this magnitude has been a first for the Woman's Club, and many lessons have been learned, as well as gaining new experiences in teamwork. It certainly takes a community to complete such a task.

Special guests and officials will be present to witness the unveiling, but most importantly

Schools reopen but agencies have yet to get H1N1 vaccine

By Miranda Cantrell James

County schools are back in session after a week-long closure due to influenza-related illness, as local health care providers continue to await arrival of the H1N1 (swine flu) vaccine.

Gateway District Health Department Regional Training Coordinator Mike Maddox said that to date, 607 total doses of the nasal mist and injectable vaccine have been distributed to the following locations:

- Morgan County ARH, 191 total doses.
- Morgan County Health Department, 122 total doses.
- Frederick Medical Clinic, 29 total doses.
- Faith Family Practice, 11 total doses.
- Eastern Kentucky Correctional Complex, 36 total doses.
- West Liberty Nursing & Rehabilitation Center, 11 total doses.
- Morgan County High School, 104 total doses.
- Morgan County Middle School, 90 total doses.
- East Valley Elementary School, 82 total doses.

- Morgan Central Elementary School, 71 total doses.
- West Liberty Elementary School, 63 total doses.
- Ezel Elementary School, 33 total doses.
- Woodsbend Youth Development Center, 15 total doses.

"This vaccine is coming in very slowly," Maddox said. "We ask the public to remain patient as we follow guidelines from Frankfort for distributing this drug."

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) officials recently attributed the nationwide vaccine shortage to manufacturing delays.

ARH officials have established the following vaccination priority ranking:

- Health care workers.
- Pregnant women.
- Persons over six months to 24 years of age.
- Household contacts and caregivers of children under six months old.
- Children ages 5-18 with a chronic medical condition.
- Healthy persons ages 25-64.

Gateway District Health Department Director of Nursing

Johnna Lane said that children who receive vaccinations within the school system must present a consent form signed by a parent or guardian.

Superintendent of Schools Deatrah Barnett noted that district-wide school attendance totaled 92 percent on Monday, a 14-point jump from 77 percent recorded on Oct. 23.

Dr. James Frederick advised anyone with H1N1 symptoms to seek medical attention and noted that ineffective flu tests are yielding

Thanks from Nursing and Rehab Center

For the annual Morgan County Sorghum Festival, West Liberty Nursing and Rehabilitation Center employees Shena Cantrell, C.N.A., and Janice Lindon, Housekeeping Department organized staff to create a float for the parade. The float was designed around the festival theme, Sorghum Festival Memories, and won 3rd place. The float would not have been possible without the hard work of Janice's husband, Bryan, and Shena's husband, Tim. We appreciate Chris Lindon for allowing us to use his trailer for the float. Thanks to everyone who worked on the float or gave items for display, including Rachel Smith, Betty Black, Ashley Ross, April Adkins, Jackie King, Kelli Spencer, Hazel Craft, Angie Jackson, Dorothy (Dot) Sizemore, Marie Lykins, Hack Sizemore, and all the children who rode on the float in the parade.

Don Rigsby

Don Rigsby to perform Sat. at Towne Cinema

Don Rigsby and Midnight Call will appear in concert this Saturday, Nov. 7, at Towne Cinema in West Liberty, starting at 7:00 p.m.

The Elliott County native has acquired an international following in Bluegrass music while remaining true to his mountain roots.

Rigsby, a singer and mandolin player, grew up listening to early Ralph Stanley records and to the sounds of his cousin Ricky Skaggs, learning from those who went before him and then adding his own personal touches.

Influenced by the late Keith Whitley, another Elliott County native, he has performed since was 12 years old, first as a guitar player and singer and later on the mandolin.

In 2001, Rigsby became the first full-time director of Morehead State University's Kentucky Center for Traditional Music, an innovative program designed to preserve and promote traditional music in all forms.

Two best friends in the business are Dixie and Tom T. Hall, who not only provided "Empty Old Mailbox" but also "The Midnight Call," the title track from his newest project for Sugar Hill Records—"Hillbilly Heartache"—and covers a wide spectrum of Bluegrass from some of the top writers in the field.

Advance tickets are $8.00 and are available at the Towne Cinema box office. Tickets at the door will be $10.00.

Natural gas will cost much less this winter, PSC says

Sharply lower wholesale natural gas prices will mean smaller heating bills for Kentucky customers this winter, the Kentucky Public Service Commission (PSC) says.

"Natural gas prices have come down considerably from the artificially high levels of last year," PSC Chairman David Armstrong said. "Furthermore, there is reason to think that we may see relatively stable prices for the next several years."

On average, Kentucky customers can expect to pay about 39 percent less this November than last for 10,000 cubic feet of natural gas. Individual reductions will vary by company and customer usage.

Wholesale prices are at their lowest levels in at least six years, and are less than half the peak prices seen in 2008. Wholesale costs make up the largest portion of retail gas bills during the heating season. They are passed through to consumers on a dollar-for-dollar basis by local distribution companies.

The amount of natural gas in storage for use during the winter is at historically high levels, according to data from the federal Energy Information Administration. That suggests adequate supplies and stable prices through the heating season, unless there is widespread and extreme cold weather.

Weather is always the main factor in determining the amount of energy that consumers use to heat their homes and thus the size of their heating bill, Armstrong said. Improvements in energy efficiency and conservation are the only way to permanently lower energy bills, he said.

"Lower energy prices do not negate the wisdom of taking steps that will reduce energy consumption in the long term," Armstrong said. "Consumers would be wise to turn some of their immediate savings into permanent investments in weatherization and other measure that will pay off in coming years."

Oct 26-Nov 1 — Get well wishes go out to all the sick and shut-ins. And to those who have lost loved ones.

My column was sent in last week for the paper but got omitted for some unseen reason, so some of the news may be late. But better late than never I suppose.

Everyone will begin to make preparations for the Thanksgiving holiday. We shouldn't just give thanks on Thanksgiving Day, but everyday throughout the year. If you have shelter, food, warmth, you need to thank God everyday for supplying all your needs.

Get well wishes to Bonnie Nickell of Cannel City who had a mishap. Hope you get to feeling well soon.

Also get well wishes go out to Nettie Goodpaster who was admitted to ARH last week. Get well soon.

Harold Goodpaster visited with Gerald and Nettie Goodpaster on Saturday Oct 24.

Kristy Goodpaster of Bardstown visited on Thursday with her father, Harold Goodpaster, and they went to the nursing home in Campton to visit with Venus Goodpaster.

Maureen McKinney returned home from ARH where she had been a patient for a few days. Hope she gets to feeling better.

The writer received a call from a good friend, Lisa Havens of Mt. Sterling. It was good to talk to her. I had not heard from her in a long time. She said she had been on the sick list not feeling well. I'd like to say Hello to her daughter, Jessica. She is a straight A student in high school and very smart.

Congratulation go out to Mr. and Mrs. Brent Harmon of Tennessee on the arrival of a new daughter. KloeyleAnne Harmon arrived on Oct 19 at 1:22 a.m. and weighed 7 lb., 12 oz. Mother Amanda and baby are doing fine. Parental grandparents are Paul and Angie Fairchild Harmon of Ezel. Maternal grandparents are Florene Fairchild and the late Donald Fairchild. Angie was there to witness the great occasion and was very happy to have a healthy granddaughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason Montgomery were in Morehead, Monday for Mason to see the doctor. He was then sent to St. Joseph Hospital in Lexington where he was admitted from Wednesday until Friday for observation.

Lennie Montgomery accompanied them and stayed with them during this time. Mason is still under the weather. Thanks go out to Lennie for all the help and kindness she has shown. Mason will return to Lexington on Thursday for a checkup.

Mason and Carolyn Montgomery would like to send out belated birthday wishes to Mason's nephew and wife, Jerry and Gearldine Howard, and Carolyn's friend, Osa Jenkins.

Happy birthday to Amber Cole, daughter of Ronald and Tammy Cole, and also to Am Thornsberry.

Tom's Branch Community Church and Ezel Church of God had a baptizing on Sunday, Oct 25, with three souls being baptized, then a dinner was served for all at Tom's Branch Church.

Mae Smith has been in St. Claire Hospital having a procedure done. Get well wishes go out to her.

There are so many people sick these days. The doctors' offices and hospitals are full. Especially with the H1N1 and regular flu going around. Use caution when out, and if you are susceptible to getting sick easily, stay away from large crowds. You can never be too careful.

We did have a few pretty days this week, just enough to tease us, then back to rain. Hopefully this week will bring us some better weather.

Nov 1 — Tamara Carpenter and Adam Tate visited with Barbara Carpenter on Sunday. They drove down to Morehead to the new Peddlers Mall to browse.

Visitors of Perry and Sandra have been Harold Goodpaster and Barbara Goodpaster.

Sharon and J.B. Spencer visited with Venus Goodpaster at the Wolfe County Nursing Home recently.

I would like to send a Hello out to Lillian and Virgil Fannin. My husband, Perry, had bought a small trailer from him. Good to talk to him. Get well wishes go out to them. They both don't feel well, and under the weather. Get well wishes go out to Kaylie, granddaughter of Mary Stacey, who has been under the weather.

Lots of people are suffering with flu symptoms. Please be careful and wash and sanitize frequently.

I received a good report from a fellow employee of GADD in Morehead. Paula said she had tried the Cajun Chicken recipe and truly enjoyed it and was easy to make. Thanks, Paula. Hope your get to try others and enjoy them also.

Happy anniversary goes out to Chester and Kate Kemplin, which was Nov 1.

Phillip Montgomery visited with his father Mason, Sunday, Nov 1. Glad to have him.

Jeffery and Lennie Montgomery spent Friday night with Mason while Carolyn was away.

Happy birthday to Buford Jr. Blevins of Tennessee, a relative of Carolyn Montgomery.

Mason had a doctor's appointment on Thursday, Oct 29. He remains the same.

Toms Branch Community Church will have guests on Nov 15 for morning services. Two for One will be singing this day. Everyone is welcome to come out and fellowship.

Patrick Montgomery will celebrate a birthday on Nov 8. He is the grandson of Mason and Carolyn Montgomery.

Congratulation go out to Billy W. Bolin, who got saved and baptized recently. God is still in the saving business. All you have to do is call upon his name and he will hear you. God is a life-changer, when you think there is no way possible to work out things, God can make a way. He is a way-maker.

Twenty-Six

By Sherry Bailey
Nov. 5 — I'd like to extend my sympathy to all who have lost loved ones recently and get-well wishes to the sick.
Belated happy birthday wishes to Earl Kinner, Jr., who celebrated his birthday recently. Also, belated birthday wishes to my son-in-law, Bryan Maynard, who also celebrated his birthday Oct. 27. If there's anyone in my family reading this who celebrated their birthday on October 26, [belated] happy birthday wishes to you, too. . .

Bill and I attended Aunt lousie Wilson's funeral on Wednesday, Oct. 21. She was one fine lady! I am trying to rejoice for her, even though I miss her already. I know she is in heaven, rejoicing to see Uncle Wilbur again – and Jesus.

Two of Mother's dear friends and classmates from Lexington were at the funeral: Delores "Dee" Lacy Sorrell (and husband Henry) and Mary Lou Ratliff. I saw a lot of people [too numerous to mention] that I knew when I was growing up. It was so good to see every one of them.

Please pray for my grandchildren, Ali and Johnny. They have had some kind of a 'bug' that is going around, throwing up, diarrhea, etc.

Also, continue to remember Jill Salyer in your prayers. God has really brought her through a lot, and I'm so proud of the fight she's put up and the progress she's made. That's what we have to do. When it feels like the devil is coming at us with the worst sicknesses we can imagine, we just have to keep remembering, "Greater is He that is in ME than that's in the world," and, "If God be FOR me, who can be against me???? Keep those good reports coming, Jill!

Received a call recently from Fern Perry, whose husband, James 'Darrell' Perry, formerly of Twenty-Six, has undergone an aorta heart valve replacement. If anyone wants to send him a card, you may send it to his home at: 203 W. Washington St., Mahomet, IL 61853-9222. Darrell is the only surviving sibling of Lula Carpenter of Rt. 1, West Liberty.

Deer hunters and rabbit hunters, be careful. Don't shoot unless you can SEE what you're shooting at. Don't just shoot into moving bushes.

Clarence Kelly dropped me off some of his new CD's of A Trip Back in Time over the weekend. So, now, if someone wants one, I've got them.

Until next time, God bless you and yours. . .

If you have anything you want included in the Twenty-Six news, please phone me at 606-725-5200 or e-mail me at sbsailey@mrtc.com

The Judge's Corner

By Tim Conley
Judge Executive

Hello from Judge Tim Conley and Staff.

I truly believe in the U.S. Veterans, those of the past, present, and future. This Veterans Day do something special: Say Thank You to a veteran.

Here is a story that was sent to me by email. Thanks, Sherry, for allowing me to share this story with the readers of The Licking Valley Courier.

I like this teacher.

A Lesson That Should Be Taught In All Schools And Colleges

Back in September of 2005, on the first day of school, Martha Cothren, a social studies school teacher at Robinson High School in Little Rock, Ark., did something not to be forgotten. On the first day of school, with the permission of the school superintendent, the principal and the building supervisor, she removed all of the desks from her classroom.

When the first period kids entered the room they discovered that there were no desks.

"Ms. Cothren, where're our desks?"

She replied, "You can't have a desk until you tell me how you earn the right to sit at a desk."

They thought, "Well, maybe it's our grades."

"No," she said.

"Maybe it's our behavior."

She told them, "No, it's not even your behavior."

And so, they came and went, the first period, second period, third period. Still no desks in the classroom.

By early afternoon television news crews had started gathering in Ms. Cothren's classroom to report about this crazy teacher who had taken all the desks out of her room.

The final period of the day came and as the puzzled students found seats on the floor of the deskless classroom, Martha Cothren said, "Throughout the day no one has been able to tell me just what he/she had done to earn the right to sit at the desks that are ordinarily found in this classroom. Now I am going to tell you."

At this point, Martha Cothren went over to the door of her classroom and opened it.

Twenty-seven U.S. veterans, all in uniforms, walked into that classroom, each one carrying a school desk. The vets began placing the school desks in rows, and they would walk over and stand alongside the wall. By the time the last soldier had set the final desk in place those kids started to understand, perhaps for the first time in their lives, just how the right to sit at those desks had been earned.

Martha said, "You didn't earn the right to sit at these desks. These heroes did it for you. They placed the desks here for you. Now, it's up to you to sit in them. It is your responsibility to learn, to be good students, to be good citizens. They paid the price so that you could have the freedom to get an education. Don't ever forget it."

By the way, this is a true story. Pass it along so others won't forget that the freedoms we have in this great country were earned by U.S. veterans.

518 people arrested in largest drug roundup in East Kentucky history

The largest drug roundup in Eastern Kentucky's history unfolded late last week, as state, local and federal officers stormed dozens of homes with felony arrest warrants for 518 people, including one Morgan County woman.

The raid, known as Operation Flamingo Road, is the culmination of a three-year effort involving multiple law enforcement agencies to strike at the heart of an illegal prescription drug trafficking organization.

Kentucky law enforcement agencies have seen an increase in the number of prescription drug involved cases and began to notice a trend developing, which involved Kentuckians traveling to south Florida to obtain painkillers. Detectives utilized informants and other intelligence to determine that a large number of patients showing up in south Florida pain clinics were from Kentucky.

Kentucky State Police and Operation UNITE officials have confirmed that the following individuals were arrested in Morgan and surrounding counties for trafficking in controlled substances:

"This type of investigation often involves the same violent criminal activity as any other investigation into organized drug trafficking," emphasized KSP Commissioner Rodney Brewer. "We cannot forget the dedication and tireless effort put forth by KSP detectives, task force officer and troopers, local officers and federal agents. Without them, a roundup of this magnitude would not have been possible."

Brewer said a majority of these charges were for trafficking in controlled substances (first and second degree), which are felony charges that include penalties ranging from 18 months to 20 years in prison if convicted.

KSP detectives obtained 327 of the 518 total arrest warrants issued in 33 counties.

Arrest warrants are for individuals in Bath, Boyd, Boyle, Breathitt, Carter, Clark, Clay, Estill, Fayette, Fleming, Floyd, Greenup, Harlan, Harrison, Johnson, Knott, Leslie, Letcher, Lincoln, Madison, Martin, Magoffin, McCreary, Menifee, Morgan, Owsley, Perry, Pike, Powell, Pulaski, Rockcastle, Rowan and Wolfe counties.

"We have heard the voices of the citizens of Kentucky to 'do something' about this dangerous drug problem," said Brewer. "Your calls, valuable tips and input have not fallen on deaf ears."

Brewer thanked the Office of National Drug Control Policy

(ONDCP) for funding Operation Flamingo Road.

"This monumental operation could not have been possible without the funding received from ONDCP," remarked Brewer. "Specifically, Frank Napier, the Director for Appalachia HIDTA, played a pivotal role in petitioning ONDCP to fund this venture."

The Kentucky Medical Examiner's Office reported that the state led the nation in use of prescription drugs for non-medical purposes in 2008. Preliminary numbers from the Kentucky Office of Vital Statistics confirmed that 877 deaths in the Commonwealth were attributed to prescription drug overdoses last year.

The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Service Administration (SAMSHA) indicates that Northeastern Kentucky has the highest rate of non-medical use of pain killers in the nation by person 12 years and older.

The Kentucky Administrative Office of the Courts reported that the total number of prescription drug related cases increased 22 percent between 2003 and 2007, reaching a five-year high of 7,136 cases in 2007.

"Prescription drug abuse leaves many of the impoverished even poorer and leads to crimes such as robbery, burglary and theft," said Brewer. "This agency will continue every effort to vigorously investigate these types of cases."

This multi-agency law enforcement approach allows the sharing of resources with extended jurisdictions, which results in a significant show of force against these drug trafficking cartels.

Brewer encouraged citizens to report any illegal drug activity to their toll free hotline at 1-800-DOPETIP.

Caney Valley

By Tracey Barker Hatton

Hello again from Caney Valley! It seems like all we hear about is death. I want to share an acronym about death:

Departing
Earth
Advancing
To Heaven
IF READY, that is!

Anna Ruth Cornett Harper passed away on Oct. 28, at the tender age of 57. She will be missed by her family and friends. She was a Christian, as well as many members of her family. They will see her again one day.

Anna Ruth was such a good person and to so many people. She and Mom were friends for a number of years. I remember when Dad died, Anna Ruth and her daughters came up to the house to offer their condolences, as well as many other people. One does not forget that. It helps out a family to know that others remember their loved one as well. During times of sorrow, it helps to be surrounded by friends and family who want to offer support. In Ecclesiastes 7:2 (KJV), "It is better to go to the house of mourning, than go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart."

I believe that people's hearts are more tender and needing to be comforted because death is coming to us all, and where we spend eternity becomes more prevalent when we are in mourning.

As Daisy, Lynn, Alecia, Scotty and Jimmy and their families mourn their loss of a wife, mother and grandmother, may you find comfort in scripture and let it heal your heart.

In Matthew 5:4 (KJV), "Blessed are they that mourn; for they shall be comforted."

I pray each one of you will find comfort in our Lord Jesus Christ.

This past weekend, Rachel Hatton came up and spent time with her dad and me. We all enjoyed the weekend.

Boone and I had doctor appointments last week in Winchester and Lexington. While we were down there, we saw my three sons and they were all doing well. We also did some shopping.

On Friday, I had stopped by McDonald's to get an unsweetened tea. While there, I visited with Cathy Flannery and her sister-in-law, Daisy Flannery. Betty Dunn, Bro. Hobert's wife, came in and said Bro. Hobert was doing better. He had a heart cath last Wednesday, and another stint had to be placed.

Nick Conley and McKenna Conley came up to the house the other night and visited with us a couple of hours. We enjoyed their company. It is nice to see two young Christian people wanting to come and visit with family.

On Saturday night after church services at Centerville, we had a celebration of couples who had been married 50 years or longer. Those present for the celebration were Stanley and Avanel Whisman, Billy and Phyllis Gevedon, Eunice and Elmer Hatton (Elmer was not present), Millard and Helen Lewis, and Bro. and Mrs. Eugene Haney. If I have overlooked anyone who was there and did not include your name, please forgive me. May God bless each one of you on your marriages.

If anybody has any news to report, please call me at 743-9921.

Many times in our lives we need encouragement, and to be encouragers. We need to search the scriptures for our daily bread and how God can bless us with His word. In Job 19:25-27, "For I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth. And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in flesh shall I see God. Whom I shall see for myself and mine eyes shall behold, and not another; though my reins be consumed within me."

Job remained faithful and even though he went through so many trials in his life, he was encouraged in his faith in Jesus Christ. The best way you can encourage someone is to pray for them, pray with them, share scripture and be a listening ear. The greatest gain of encouragement will be from our saviour, Jesus Christ. Be encouragers daily. May God bless and keep you.

Prayer Requests
Bro. Hobert Dunn, Margie Flannery, Debbie Craft, Anna Ruth Harper's family, Don Cheek, Debbie Robinson Patrick, Woodford and Berchlene Henry, our schools, Jim and Sharon Sparks, Dylan Evans, Earl Ray Elam, Danielle Davis and Kendra Davis.

Wedding Congratulations
Kristy Davis and Shane Sheets on Oct. 23.

Bonny

By Faye Ferguson

Nov. 5--Hi everyone.

Congratulations to everyone. Hope everyone is doing good.

Do you like this cold weather? I dread being housed up. I work o quilts when I feel like it. I've not been well at all this summer and fall. But I'm doing better by the help of the Lord. He is so good to us. He can help us when no one can.

We went to trade day in Mount Sterling. A large crowd went in Mount Sterling, also Preston. It was so cold and muddy at Preston. The weather was bad.

Our grandson, Justin Flannery, left for the Marines October 18th. We are lost to death ithout him. I call him my baby. I love him so much. No one knows how much we miss him. His mom, Stephanie, and his sisters, Shelby and Maci, have cried our eyes out. He won't be home until Jan. 15 on his vacation. That seems like years. Only God help us through this. He is such a good boy and loved by everyone who knows him. He has such a good personality. I pray god will keep His hand on him day and night.

We had a call from Virgil's brother and sister-in-law, from Bardstown. Said they were fine. Glad to hear from them.

I miss my sister who passed away August 10th. I always wrote to her and looked forward to hearing from her. I miss her a lot.

Well we've got our potatoes dug and put away for winter. Virgil also got me a lot of walnuts hulled to have for winter. I love them. They are good for candy and cakes.

I had a call from my brother, Dorman Nipper. He and Nell both are not feeling good. Get well wishes to them. Nell's head hurts a lot. Nell, I hope you are feeling better.

There is so much flu. The schools are closed. May God bless all the little children and everyone. Let us pray God keep his hands on all of us.

Johnny Bates has been feeling some better. We thank God for that.

To all the sick and shut-ins we pray God help you.

Happy birthday to all who have birthdays in November. Our daughter, Janet, has hers on the 18th. Have a good one, Janet. We love you.

I would love to find some mustard greens. If anyone has any call me at 725-5042. I also have quilts for sale and some potatoes. If anyone has or would like to buy this call me anytime.

Well may God bless each one. Take care until next time.

JACK FROST

Jack frost came a sneekin; oone chilly,autumn night. Woludn't you know? He touched everyting in sight!

Oh.he paints a pretty picture. as we see by the rising sun. The beauty of his work shows, But not the change he has done

The weeds and the flowers, the tomatoes and the corn, All were banging their heads, By the middle of the morn.

So once again ol' Jack, Puts an end to the growin' He came and went quickly, Without his face showen'!

Your Social Security

Disability Something To Think About

Disability is something most people do not like to think about.

But the unfortunate reality is this: the chances that you will become disabled are probably far greater than you realize. Studies show that a 20-year-old worker has a three in 10 chance of becoming disabled before reaching retirement age.

Social Security pays benefits to people with disabilities through the Social Security disability insurance program, which is covered by Social Security taxes. If you qualify, you can receive a monthly disability benefit from Social Security for as long as your disability keeps you from working. The amount of your benefit is based on your average lifetime earnings. After a period of time, usually after receiving cash benefits for 24 months, you can also receive Medicare coverage.

When you work and pay Social Security taxes, you earn credits. The number of credits you need to qualify for disability benefits depends on your age, and some of the work must be recent. For example, if you become disabled after age 31, you need to have worked at least 10 years and five of the past 10 years. But if you become disabled before age 24, you need only one and a half years of work in the past three years.

If you have a disability that makes you unable to work, the time to get started with your application is now. That is because it can take time to determine whether you qualify for benefits. It usually takes about three to five months for a medical decision from the state agency that evaluates your condition. Then, if your application is approved, your first Social Security disability payment will be made for the sixth full month after the date we determine that your disability began. Medicare coverage generally begins 24 months, or two years, after you begin receiving Social Security disability benefits.

Given the time it can take, it is in your best interest to do everything you can to speed up the process. The best first step is for you to read our online publication, Disability Benefits, at www.socialsecurity.gov/pubs/10029.html. It will tell you all about the process, including what information you will need to apply for benefits.

Then, take advantage of our online disability starter kits. You will find them on our disability website at www.socialsecurity.gov/disability, or call 1-800-772-1213 (TTY 1-800-325-0778) and ask that a kit be mailed to you.

Once you complete the online disability starter kit and you are ready to apply, the most convenient way to do that is online too. Just go to the same disability website at www.socialsecurity.gov/disability.

THEY HUNG MY LORD

They hung my Lord at Calvary. They gave Him bitter gall to drink. Forgive them Father was His plea, and sinner He'll forgive you today. Jesus came to this earth, to bare the sins of the world. Someday He's coming back again, to claim the ones that have lived for Him. Sinner won't you stop and think, about the only Son of God who gave His life upon calvary's cross so this old world would not be lost.

The Light

After travelling underground by subway, when you walk up the long stairs to exit the station, you step onto the sidewalk and into the light. You can never be certain from one step to the next exactly what scene will await you at the top. It could be a business district shining with glass and steel, a park or tree-lined residential street, or a row of shops and restaurants.

Stepping into new situations can be frightening: not knowing what's in store. But, we don't need to be afraid, because God is with us. We read in Psalm 112:4 "Even in darkness light dawned for the upright."

Let God walk with you through your days. Learn more about His Word as you step toward the light of His love in worship and praise at His House this week.

AREA DEATHS

IN MEMORIAM

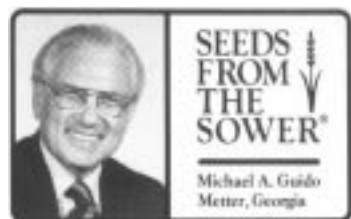

Beverly Ann Vance

Beverly Ann Vance, age 51, of Trotwood, Ohio, passed away Oct. 31, 2009, at her residence. She was born in Frenchburg, Ky., on April 12, 1958, a daughter of the late Jesse Clyde and Anna Mae (Taylor) Vance and the granddaughter of the late Ronald and Ida Vance. She was also preceded in death by a brother, Clyde Jr. Vance O'Dell.

She is survived by three children, Josuha (Nicole) Steele, Tamara (Matt) Voss, and Brandon (Monica) Kelly; one grandson, Ryan Kelly; one sister, Betty Lou (Gary) Quigley of Dayton, Ohio; two brothers, Buzzy Vance O'Dell and Tim Vance O'Dell (Brenda); one half-brother, David (Becky) Copeland; one half-sister, Betty Jean (George) Rogers, and several neices and nephews and friends.

Services were conducted Wednesday, Nov. 4, 2009, at Newcomer Funeral Home, Dayton, Ohio. Burial in Caney, Ky., at the Morris Cemetery on Thursday Nov. 5, 2009.

A deacon arrived at church soaking wet.

"What happened?" asked the preacher.

"I met a bear on a log that crossed the stream, and I jumped into the water."

"Why didn't you pray?"

"Prayer is for prayer meeting," he said, "not bear meeting."

But Daniel prayed in the lion's den, Jonah in the belly of the fish, Peter on the sea and the thief on the cross. And their prayers were answered.

Some have prayed short prayers, as Peter's three-word prayer, and long prayers, like Solomon's 1,100-word prayer.

Samuel prayed in childhood, Timothy in youth and Simeon in old age; and God answered.

Jesus said men "should always pray and not give up."

Fewer fish, but bigger

Headwaters Bass Club held its last tournament of the regular season at Yatesville Lake Sept. 27. Winning first place were Rick Salyer and Cordale Francis with two fish weighing 5.05 pounds. Winning second place and big fish were Terry Whitt and Les Howard with a weight of 4.80 pounds with one fish. Coming in third were Marshall and Diana Fannin with one fish weighing 2.89 pounds.

Local UK fans may have recognized one or more of these folks caught in a camera sweep of the stands at a recent UK football game televised on ESPN. They are, from left, West Liberty native Jade Nickell Carty, Leslie Beacraft, and Dr. Krissy Carty, DMD, all of Mt. Sterling. Jade and Becraft are dental surgical assistants in Dr. Carty's dental office in Mt. Sterling. This photo is a digital camera shot of the TV screen snapped by a local UK fan.

ATHLETES OF THE WEEK

MCMS Boys' Football Team:

The Morgan County Middle School Football team is the athlete of the week this week. The team finished at 13-2 and as the state runner-up. They had a thrilling win over a fine Gallatin County football team on Saturday, before losing to Somerset in the state finals on Sunday, November 1st. Three Cougars: Austin Arnett, Jonathan Crouch, and Kody Thornsberry were selected to the first team all-state.

Congratulations boys and we all look forward to watching you play for the next four years at Morgan County High School.

MORGAN COUNTY FOOTBALL

Cougars send seniors out in style with 12-3 win over E. Carter

Collins' 30-yard pass, Harvey run account for Cougar touchdowns

By David Patrick

Morgan County's defense held East Carter to only 125 total yards, while forcing three fumbles and an interception, as the Cougars celebrated Senior Night with a 12 - 3 win at Herdman Field.

The Raiders only points came on a 40-yard field goal by kicker Matt Langstaff with just over a minute remaining in the first quarter. Morgan threatened to score late in the second period with a 63-yard drive—highlighted by a 26 yard run from Joe Holbrook and 18 passing yards by Larrin Collins. But the first half clock expired with Morgan trailing 3 - 0 at intermission.

East Carter fumbled on its opening possession of the third quarter, which was recovered by cornerback Jared Curd on the Cougar 36-yard line. The Raiders' next possession also resulted in a turnover—this time courtesy of an Adam Cooper interception at mid-field.

But Morgan returned the favor when Collins was also picked off at the 50-yard line. The Cougars' next possession, however, resulted in their first score of the game. The Raiders were flagged with a late hit at the end of a 13-yard gain by Holbrook. That was followed by a 30-yard touchdown pass from Collins to Ryan Flannery at the 3:42 mark of the third quarter.

The Raiders' next possession was followed by a tackle-for-loss by Morgan's Cory Ciorrochi, resulting in a fourth and long. East opted for a 44-yard field goal try by Langstaff—but he hooked it wide right. The Cougar defense took its toll on East as Flannery forced a fumble that was recovered by Dylan Moore.

Costly penalties continued to plague the Raiders with personal fouls on both their and Morgan County's next drives. The Cougars cashed in on a late hit penalty with a 10-yard scoring run by senior Mitchell Harvey for a 12 - 3 lead with 3:20 remaining in regulation.

East appeared to be in business following a 50-yard kickoff return to put the ball at the Cougar 21. But on the second play from scrimmage, Ciorrochi forced yet another fumble—with this one being recovered by Cooper at the 12-yard line. Morgan was able to kill the final 2:10 left on the clock to secure a well-deserved second win of the season.

"We felt we had a chance to win coming in," said Cougar head coach Brian Turner. "Our biggest concern was that we only dressed 19 players for the game due to illness and injury. But the biggest difference was character. Personal foul and unsportsmanlike penalties killed East. They probably had 80 to 100 yards of penalties and it helped us gain valuable field position."

The rare win in late October marked the first time in more than a decade that the Cougars had won on Senior Night. Seniors Kyle Havens, Dylan Moore, Adam Cooper, Nate Cantrell, Austin Shuck and Mitchell Harvey were able to walk off Herdman Field as winners—something that meant a lot to Morgan's first-year head coach.

"I'm so happy for our seniors because they've had to go through four coaches in the last four years—and that's not easy," Turner said. "These kids have endured a lot of low points in their career. But last Friday, they were able to hold their head high and enjoy a win. That's something to be proud of."

Harvey capped a stellar regular season with 15 carries for 43 yards—giving him 1,047 for the season. Holbrook appears to be the heir apparent in the Cougar backfield—capping an outstanding freshman campaign with 65 yards to run his total to 263 on the season. Cooper and Havens combined 42 rushing yards.

Defensively, the Cougars were led by six tackles each from Ciorrochi and Havens. Flannery finished with five solo tackles, including two sacks and a forced fumble.

(Once again, I extend a very special thanks to MCHS football statistician Shawn Conley. Without his help, it would be impossible for me to cover the Cougars from week-to-week. His game details and stats are very much appreciated. Shawn, thanks again for your hard work and faithfulness during this football season.)

What A Difference A Year Makes

MCH Football makes huge strides since winless 2008

By David Patrick

This time last year, Morgan County football had just finished up a winless season. The Cougars were blown out in 10 straight games, including an embarrassing 56-8 loss to East Carter in the regular season finale.

But what a difference a year makes. Last Friday night, the Cougars avenged the 2008 loss to the Raiders with a 12 - 3 win at Herdman Field. By the numbers, the game marked a 57-point turnaround and gave Brian Turner's team its second win of the season—and the first Senior Night victory in more than a decade.

Statistically, the 2009 season is light years ahead of both '08 and '07. With a playoffs still to go, Morgan has already scored 192 points—an improvement of 106 points from last season and 97 points from '07. The Cougars have outgained their opponents in total yardage (2,962 to 2,822) and outrushed the opposition by a staggering 900 yards!

Cougar running back Mitchell Harvey has enjoyed a fantastic senior season, running for 1,047 yards, 11 touchdowns and six 2-point conversions. Harvey has accounted for a team-high 78 points.

The defensive turnaround is even more impressive. Morgan has surrendered 283 points this season—compared to 540 in '08 and 536 two years ago. Nine Cougars have had at least one fumble recovery with senior Adam Cooper grabbing three of the team's four interceptions.

As a team, Morgan was in six of its 10 games well into the fourth quarter. In 2008, the Cougars failed to play within three touchdowns of any opponent and scored in double figures just three times. This season, Morgan has scored in double figures in ALL but two games.

"I've been pleasantly surprised with this team and it's willingness to work throughout the season," Turner said this week. "The level of discipline and the respect this team has earned are something to be very proud of. Obviously, you hope for more wins. But the important thing is to do things the right way and keep improving with each game. If you do that, winning will take care of itself."

Again—what a difference a year makes.

#22 Mitchell Harvey

Senior football player for the MCHS Cougars with four years of football experience, Mitchell Harvey, loves to play the game and spend time watching his favorite player, Peyton Manning of the Indianapolis Colts. After graduation, he hopes to find himself enjoying his other favorite sport, baseball, as a college baseball player hopeful.

To go out on the field and become a good football player, it takes a lot of heart and guts as he suits up each week, the Cougars' Wingback indicated. Looking back, his most memorable moment was the game, just weeks ago, when the Cougars ended their losing streak with a defeat over Powell County. Smiling, Mitchell quickly answered, "That (win) felt good."

When asked what advice he would give to others possibly considering playing football or tackling what might seem to be a rough road ahead of the them, Harvey commented with all seriousness, "Believe in what you're doing even when others don't believe in you."

After numerous coaching changes and transitions within the football program the past few years, Harvey still felt like he had learned something about himself as a football player. Mitchell commented that he has learned to show respect and be responsible for himself and others.

Hazel Green's Swango Springs was once a popular tourist resort

The Rittenhouse Hotel

Swango Springs, at Hazel Green, was a popular resort around the turn of the twentieth century. Famous for its mineral spring water, it was visited by people from all over the country who came to stay at the Rittenhouse Hotel. Owners of the resort bottled and shipped water all over the country for its healing properties. The resort had a boardwalk leading into Hazel Green by 1895. Three hotels and many boarding houses were host to people who came for cures at the spring. They were known as the "summer boarders".

Fire destroyed the Rittenhouse Hotel in 1910. A few years later Mr. Crockett Coldiron purchased the Spring and sold and shipped the water until his death. Afterwards, his wife carried on the business until her death. Following Mrs. Ella Coldiron's death in 1943, her son-in-law, Glen McCoun, and wife bought the springs. He did not operate the spring.

The Swango Springs property, on the Daysboro pike, is owned today today by Mr. Joey Gilbert.

As recently as 1935 people came to board with Mr. and Mrs. C.S. Cecil in the town and drink the spring water for its curative value. In the issue of The Hazel Green Herald, April 23, 1903, it was reported that: The stone spring-house being erected by An unidentified man and woman stand in front of the stone spring house that was erected over the spring in 1903.

John Davis over the Swango Spring will be a thing of beauty when completed. Evidently Mr. Rittenhouse intended to leave a Monument of his progressive and enterprising spirit.

Your Social Security

Stay In Touch

If you have recently moved to a new address, chances are some of your former neighbors and friends from the community asked you to be sure to keep in touch. If you receive Social Security benefits, we would like to keep in touch too. In fact, you need to let us know about your new address. Even if you receive your payments by direct deposit, Social Security needs your current mailing address so you can continue to receive important notices about changes in benefits.

Don't worry; changing your address with Social Security can be as convenient and easy as logging on to your computer. Just go to www.socialsecurity.gov and select "What You Can Do Online" link in the top left corner. The fourth item down is "If you get benefits." That is where you will want to go. Then select "Change your address or telephone number."

Once there, the web page will tell you exactly what you need to do to change your address with Social Security. You will need to provide your new address, including your postal ZIP code. (If you do not know your ZIP code, the page includes a directory where you can locate it easily by entering your street address.

If more than one person receives benefits at an address (such as a husband or wife), each person has to make the address change.

If you have a password with Social Security, that is all the information you will need to provide. But remember, you do not need a password to change your address or telephone number. You just have to prove to Social Security who you are by providing certain identifying information.

It is that easy. Once your address is changed, you know you will continue to receive important notices from Social Security when needed, such as letters telling you about changes in benefit amounts.

Paul Stamper displays photographs of championship winning mules, jacks

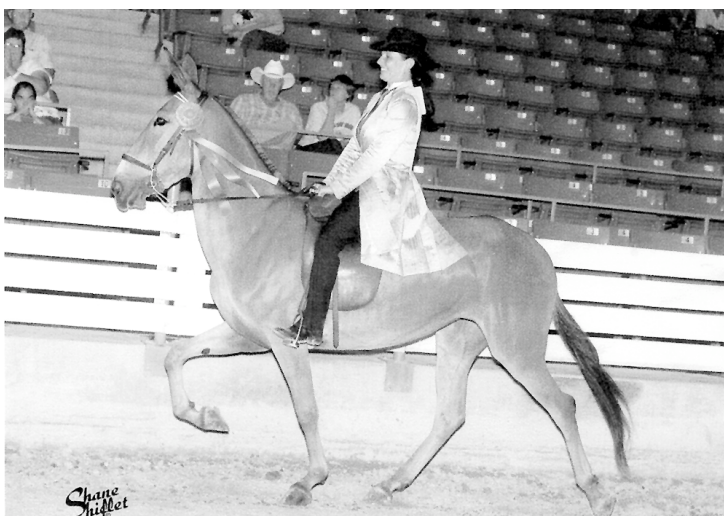

Paul Stamper, Maytown, Ky., well-known owner of Championship mules and jacks, would like to proudly display some of his winning photos. To date, 13 championship classes have been won in the 2009 show year – only fitting for a man who will tell you his lucky number is 13.

Mountain View Mules and Jacks were viewed by fans at Owingsville Lions Club Horse Show, the National Mule and Donkey Celebration held in Shelbyville, Tenn., The Kentucky State Championship Gaited Mule Show in Liberty, Ky. and the North American World Show in Louisville, Ky.

Paul dominates the field with his blue ribbon jacks, walking mules and racking mules. Paul has won over 70 world championships classes with his gaited mules and jacks throughout the years, an amazing record to be respected by the mule and jack stock industry.

When asked, Paul always gives thanks to God for his good fortune and talent to have owned, raised and shown the best mules and jacks in the world.

Paul also received high point award in 2008 with "JFK's Walking All Over" and in 2009 with "Mt. View Bubba Lou." Paul is also very proud to have an invitation to present a demonstration of a gaited mule at the 2009 TWH Celebration in Shelbyville, Tenn., by Bubba Lou, an honor that Paul and Red Rooster presented in 1989.

HISTORICAL SKETCHES by Joe Nickell

JURY SYSTEM. A jury is a group of individuals sworn to give a true answer to a legal question set before it.

The jury system began in the ninth century with the inquisitions of Carolingian Kings (Charlemagne's successors). They used groups of neighbors who were not personally involved in matters, requiring them to declare information under oath that could be used for establishing royal rights. This evolving procedure was carried into Normandy, and then – by the Norman conquest in 1066 – to England. From there, centuries later, it was taken to America. (Ironically, it was revered there during the colonial period for its effectiveness in stalling enforcement of certain unpopular English laws.)

The main types of jury are the grand jury, which investigates accusations of crime and determines whether there is sufficient evidence for a trial, and the petit jury (after the French word petit meaning "small") or trial jury, which is selected to decide a civil or criminal case in a court of law. There is also the coroner's jury, which witnesses a coroner's investigation and determines the cause of any death not clearly attributable to natural causes.

In Morgan County's most legendary criminal case – the murder of Irish peddler Morris Haggerty by William H. Brown on Dec. 7, 1852 – there was apparently no coroner's inquest; however, Brown was indicted, tried, and, on April 29, 1853, went unconvicted as the result of a hung jury. Rumors were whispered about one juror having been bribed.

The following October, Brown was again arraigned and again pled not guilty. A new jury was selected on Oct. 19-20. The 12 men were George D. Brown (presumably unrelated to the defendant), Aaron Crosthwait, Abraham Swango, Reese B. Murry, Joseph Utterback, William W. Elam, Edward S. Rose, James Gibbs, Bird Isom, Isaiah Wilson, Abraham Phillips and Gideon Howard. The trial lasted only two days, after which the jury reached a speedy verdict of guilty.

On Oct. 25, Judge J.W. Moore sentenced Brown to be hanged, on Oct. 9, 1853 (a year and two days after the peddler's murder), the hanging was carried out by Sheriff William Mynheir.

The means of selecting jurors has varied greatly over time and place. In earlier years in Morgan County, prospective jurors' names were written on slips of paper and inserted in capsules. These were then tumbled in a simple device called a jury wheel and drawn out – the process insuring random selection and thus fairness. (The accompanying photos were taken from the Morgan County Historical Society's collection.)

The jury system is alternately praised and criticized. Critics suggest reforms, such as improving the caliber of those serving, and permitting more involvement by the trial judge. The basic democratic system, however, continues to appeal to our egalitarian rather than authoritarian impulses.

EVERY DAY THANKSGIVING

Even tho I clutch my blanket and growl when the alarm rings each morning. Thank you Lord, that I can hear. There are many who are deaf. Even tho I keep my eyes tightly closed against the morning light as long as possible, thank you, Lord, that I can see. There are many who are blind. Even though I huddle in my bed and put off the effort of rising, thank you, Lord, that I have the strength to rise. There are many who are bed ridden, even though the first hour of my day is hectic when socks are lost, toast is burned, and tempers are short, thank you, Lord, for my family. There are many who are lonely even though our breakfast table never looks like the pictures in magazines and the menu is at times unbalanced. Thank you, Lord, for the food we have. There are many who are hungry. Even tho the routine of my job is often monotonous. Thank you, Lord, for the opportunity to work. There are many who have no job. Even though I grumble and bemoan my fate from day to day and wish my circumstances were not so modest, thank you, Lord, for the gift of life. In this season of Thanksgiving and just plain giving, we wish a Happy Thanksgiving from our house to your house, and bless all the soldiers whose serving their country. We pray for them to soon return back home. (Submitted by Alpha Clevenger)

The scary basics of 'shake and bake' meth

We're choosy about passing along stories from The Associated Press because they get very wide circulation, but this one by Justin Juozapavicius out of Tulsa commands our attention and, we hope, yours: "This is the new formula for methamphetamine: a two-liter soda bottle, a few handfuls of cold pills and some noxious chemicals. Shake the bottle and the volatile reaction produces one of the world's most addictive drugs."

We've reported on the "shake and bake" way to make methamphetamine, but that's the best lead we've seen. And there's real news: "An Associated Press review of lab seizures and interviews with state and federal law enforcement agents found that the new method is rapidly spreading across the nation's midsection and is contributing to a spike in the number of meth cases after years of declining arrests."

Juozapavicius explains why: "Because the new method uses far less pseudoephedrine, small-time users are able to make the drug in spite of a federal law that bars customers from buying more than 9 grams — roughly 300 pills — a month. And he delivers this warning: "One little mistake, such as unscrewing the bottle cap too fast, can result in a huge blast, and police in Alabama, Oklahoma and other states have linked dozens of flash fires this year — some of them fatal — to meth manufacturing."
